She Was Not a Drinker and Missed Its Point.

"My wife has just heard that old story about the man on the train and the corkscrew," said my neighbor. "The story goes this way: Man rises in a car and says, 'Is there a man from Bangor, Me., in the car?' 'Nother man gets up with an inquiring look on his face. 'I'm from Bangor,' says he. 'Well,' says the first feller, 'let me take your corkscrew.'"

"My wife thought the story was pretty good. The other night I was out in the sitting room reading, and she was in the parlor talking with the woman from over the way. I had to stop reading and listen to this.

"Oh, say," says my wife, "I heard an awfully funny story the other day. Now, let me think a minute. Can't be that I've forgotten it. Let's see. Oh, yes. This is it. The other day on the train a man got up in the car all at once and shouted just as loud as he could, 'Is there a man from Bangor, Me., in this car?' Every one jumped and looked at the man. One person down near the door stood up and said, 'I'm from Bangor, sir.' The other man then said, 'Will you be kind enough to let me take your screwdriver?' There! Isn't that funny?"

"He, he, he," snickered the other woman a little easy. "Yes, that's a real cute story; just as funny as it can be. But what did he mean? I guess I don't understand what it is about."

"I could almost hear the wife thinking. Then says she: 'Well, my gracious, that doesn't sound so funny now. I wonder what the trouble is with it? Guess I didn't tell it right. But no matter. Oh, you were going to tell me about that new ribbon cake that—' and then I continued with my literary studies."—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

How Would You Have Said It?

There is much in the way a thing is said. "Your cheeks are like roses," said Aunt Flora when Lois came in from a January walk, glowing from the cold and exercise. Lois smiled and looked lovingly at Aunt Flora. Aunt Margaret entered the room a minute later and glancing at Lois as she stood by the fire said: "My! Your face is as red as a beet!"

The red grew deeper on Lois' face, while unconsciously she turned pettishly away from Aunt Margaret, who prides herself on being "plain spoken." Aunt Flora's way is best. She can say the right word at the right time, too, even the word of admonition and reproof, but she says it in such a manner that one can think only of the Scriptural "apples of gold in pictures of silver."—Ada C. Sweet in Women's Home Companion.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land which is not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on S. J. Hodgkinson, Druggist, and get a trial bottle. Regular size, 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Get Quick Action.

Cunningham & Ferguson's groceries don't get stale. They are sold too fast. This firm makes quick sales by being content with small profits.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women and all feel this results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, and tired, listless run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have new lease on life." Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store Every bottle guaranteed.

Refrigerators and freezers, garden tools and mowers cheapest at Ed. Schmitt's.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1900.
A PART OF CHINA MAY BECOME AMERICAN TERRITORY.

The future of the United States in China is not understood because it is not revealed. It is claimed that recent developments in China demand its disembodiment by the powers. It is very plain that the demand has been agreed on for some time, but there was required to justify its enforcement an excuse and an opportunity. To furnish an excuse and an opportunity encroachments have been made on the old empire to make it the aggressor in some form, which has been brought about through the stupidity of the Empress Dowager and her advisors.
The old idea of exclusiveness entertained by the Chinese was assailed through encroachments made by outside barbarians until it effervesced from pressure and the effervescence in the character of Boxers made their appearance in deeds of cruelty and blood.

Then came the required action to relieve those who were subject to Boxer superstition and cruelty, which action by the powers was in turn resisted by the Chinese as an encroachment upon Chinese territory and rights. Christendom is now prepared to act, and the people of christendom whose missionaries have been murdered are ready to sustain the action of the powers. Russia has been in the business of appropriation for some time, regardless of any consent by its people. It is absolute and the consent of its people was not required, but Russia respects the opinion of people who live under free governments more than it respects the opinion of its people, whom it does not consult.

President McKinley and his cabinet have been coquetting with the people of the United States, and seemingly with the nations of Europe about acquiring territory in China; or, in other words, the cunning of diplomacy has been practiced upon the people by those who have had the administration of government affairs upon the acquisition of territory in China. It has been kept before the people in the form of a protest by the administration for more than a year.

When the question was first presented the administration was quite sure this government did not want territory in China. The open door was all that was required by the United States. It is now learned, although it was made a part of the trusts' platform at Philadelphia, that the open door as arranged is not worth the paper it is written on. It now appears that the open door has furnished Secretary Hay an opportunity to coquet with the monarchies of Europe, which served to flatter his imperialist vanity and nothing more.

When the open door was given out to the country as an accomplished fact there was a disposition in certain quarters to lionize Hay over his success as a diplomat. The United States was reminded of the feat by English newspapers, when it was sought to lead the administration into opposing Russian schemes in the Orient, which flattered the vanity of Hay until the matter went so far that a protest came to our government from Russia which was uncalled for and would not have occurred if a statesman had occupied the place of Secretary Hay.

A few months ago the question of territory in China was again brought forward, when Europe was discussing the propriety of the United States intermeddling in the eastern question when it had no territorial interest in it, which intermeddling was a result of the arrangement that has existed between England and the administration.

The administration then declared the open door was the only interest this government had, or desired in the question, which was called out by Germany in the form of a command to keep out of Chinese matters, which Hay at once concolided to do. Since it is ascertained that the open door is a diplomatic fake, the propriety of giving to the United States a slice of the swag is again discussed by the banditi and certain overtures it is said have been made to the administration by European bandits respecting the quantity it will receive in consideration that this government will become a participant in the crime of partition of China.

It is claimed that the administration has the matter under consideration, but is of the opinion the matter should not be discussed till the November election is over, which is the only wise conclusion the cabinet has arrived at for more than a year to this time.
There are consequences included to the people of the United States in the proposition to acquire Chinese territory, that should be well considered.

The United States has treaty rights that apply to all China. These rights, in the event of the partition of the Empire by the powers, will be closed out in the sense of the treaty rights and will be lost, as we cannot as stated in the JOURNAL a few days since, go to war with all Europe. A question is presented for settlement included in a proper course for this government to pursue under the circumstances before it. Is it best to enter a protest and receive nothing, or is it best to receive a portion of territory in consideration of treaty rights, lost.
Should we accept territory we will receive the Chinamen who inhabit the territory. Should we accept territory and the Chinamen there are in it, the rights of Chinamen living on American territory will be up for settlement in the near future.

It will be contended by the commercial, or trust department in the country, that they cannot be excluded from the United States, as they will be American citizens without a right to vote, as women are American citizens without that right. Women, while they are denied the right to vote, have all other rights that belong to citizens which they are. The exercise of the elective franchise does not constitute a citizen, as it is a right that may be denied to any class of citizens.
Chinamen who are citizens of the United States cannot be excluded consistent with our form of government. Any decision made by the courts in time will be in favor of the Chinamen on the ground of citizenship and twenty-five to thirty millions of Chinamen will be turned loose upon the shores of the United States to compete with American labor, which will protection to American labor after the manner it is now protected by the trusts.

MINES AND MINING

Items About Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

The new mill at the Horseshoe mine, has started crushing ore.

Discoveries of high-grade gold and copper veins are reported in the vicin-

The report that the Adelaide mine at Golconda was to discontinue opera-shut down is only temporary, and the smelters are running at their full capacity.

The management of the Battle active development, and to that end will begin the sinking of a main shaft at once, while to expediate work a gasoline hoist will be installed.—Silver State.

The net returns from twelve carloads of Consolidated California and Virginia ore, aggregating 297 tons and 847 pounds, shipped to Selby & Co.'s smelting works, was $3,658.48. The average assay value of our samples of the ore in bulk taken here was $50.27 per ton, while the average assay value given by Selby & Co. was only $44.30.—Virginia Chronicle.

Mr. McMahon of Tascorora was the consignor of several tons of very high grade gold and silver ore which reached the Reduction Works early in the week. Mr. Thompson, tributor, expresses himself as highly pleased with the result of the treatment, and it is probable that more ore from that section will shortly be brought here for treatment.—Golconda News.

Contractors Erickson & Petterson are gradually getting a force at work at Orsena hill. Wednesday a carload of working men came in from Utah.
They numbered 85. It is a big contract, and the work will probably last well into the winter. Lovelock merchants are bound to receive a good trade with so many men at work in the vicinity.—Lovelock Tribune.

Dr. J. E. Stubbs returned last even-to deliver the commencement address at the college of the State of Wash-

Cedars Twenty Centuries Old.
Some cedars are undoubtedly more than 2,000 years old, for, though on good moraine soil they grow about as fast as oaks, on bare pavements and smoothly glaciated overwept granite ridges in the dome region they grow extremely slow.

One on the Starr King ridge, only 2 feet 11 inches in diameter, was 1,140 years old. Another on the same ridge, only 1 foot 7 1/2 inches in diameter, had reached the age of 834 years. The first 15 inches from the bark of a medium sized tree—6 feet in diameter—on the north canyon pavement had 850 layers of wood, or 57 to the inch. Beyond this the count was stopped by dry rot and overgrown wounds.

The largest I examined was 33 feet in girth, or nearly 10 feet in diameter, and, though I failed to get anything like a complete count, I learned enough from this and many other specimens to convince me that most of the trees 8 to 10 feet thick, standing on polished glacier pavements, are more than 20 centuries of age rather than less.
Barring accidents, for all I can see, they would live forever. When killed, they waste out of existence about as slowly as granite.—John Muir in Atlantic.

Stuck.

The beautiful woman burst into

"I never was so badly stuck on a husband in all my life!" she sobbed.

"I supposed he was worth a million, and he isn't worth anything!" In our material age, the word stuck has lost much of its tenderly sentimental significance, and is mostly used, as here, in its technical commercial sense.

Tony's Easy Job.
"Got a letter from Tony the other day," said Aunt Hepzibah Linchpin.
"What's he doing?" asked the caller.
"He's makin a livin 'thout doin anything, he says. He's got a position with a lot of rich men that have a clubhouse and play some kind of game.
I've forgot what it is, but anyway all Tony's got to do is to carry a bag with Guessing Jokes.

He—I know a man who would be willing to give $1,000 to hear you sing.
She—Totally deaf, I presume?
He—Yes. And after he had heard you he would give another thousand dollars to be deaf again, I imagine.
This fable for ladies teaches that the easiest way to irritate the gentleman to whom one may be married is to guess his joke in advance.—Indianap-

CONCERNING
WM. BRUCE

A Note From F. M. Linscott Throwing More Light
On His Death.

Last night the JOURNAL received a letter from Capt. Linscott, with which he sent two epistles, one from James Darrah, at present in Cavite, P. I., the other written by Wm. Bruce, who recently succumbed to a fatal illness in the Philippines. We publish extracts from both letters, as follows: Darrah wrote on May 13, 1900. He said in part: "Just came from Manila and was told by Gibson that Bruce died on the fourth of this month at Beaget, up the river from Vigan. I did not hear the cause of his death, nor how and where he was buried. I have written to Capurro to give me a full account of his death and how the poor fellow was buried. When I can find out about it I will do all in my power to see that the remains are properly cared for. I haven't the least idea where his relatives are, so I write this to you and will mail it in time to go on the next ship.
"Too bad some of us were not there, and at least had the remains sent to Manila. Poor fellow, after having gone through all the hardships that he did, and so many friends thinking that it would not be long until they could see him, now stiff and cold in death." Bruce's letter to Linscott is dated just one month prior to Darrah's, and is full of hope, and a trend of happy thought runs through the whole letter. He says:
"Dear Friend and Capt: Your favor of Feb. 11th received, and you can never realize the joy it gives me to again hear from you, even though separated by thousands of miles. You mention in your letter that you learned we received a good treatment during our imprisonment in Mololo; this was a mistake as the worst treatment we received during our imprisonment was in Mololo.
"I am pleased to learn that I at least have the sympathy of the people of the State. * * * Captain, I have been thinking of the proposition you mentioned and I believe that I could make a lecture that would interest the people. I certainly have sufficient resources in the way of experiences, and when I arrive in Reno will very likely give a couple of lectures.
"I am pleased to hear that the work of our troop was such as to draw words of praise from men like Lawton, also that the Nevada boys who remained behind and joined other organizations have all made good records for themselves.
"Give my sincere regards to all the boys, and hoping I will see you all soon, I remain as ever your sincere friend,
"Wm. Bruce."
"Vigan, P. I."

THE LAST
TRIBUTE PAID

Funeral of Jack Dauchy Largely Attended by Sorrowing Friends.

The mortal remains of Jack Dauchy were laid to rest Monday forenoon. Banks of cut flowers and beautiful floral pieces, tendered by the Macca-bees, Owls, Wheelmen and the clerks of Sunderland's store, signified in part the place Jack Dauchy held in the hearts of his friends and acquaintances.
Rev. F. V. Jones preached the funeral sermon. The sentiments voiced by him were in accord with all who knew the dead man. Such words, when so truly deserving as in this case, can have naught but an uplifting influence over those who hear them, and make men and women pray that their lives may be equally well spent.
"The life one leads, not that which he professes, that marks him as good or bad, and Jack Dauchy, in a quiet yet forcible manner, cast an influence about him which was of the best and will be missed by those so abruptly left behind.
The business houses of Reno closed their doors that all might attend the funeral. The line of carriages was one of the longest ever seen in Reno.
The pall-bearers were Charles Richardson, Sam Armanko, W. E. Minor, Roy Reeser, Tom Biggs and H. L. McDuffee, close friends and companions of him who has been called by the Heavenly Father.

RENO WON THE RACE.

Although Defeated Carson Team Makes a Very Good Showing.

Carson—bicycle team and admiring citizens—met with another defeat at the Sunday relay race.
The admirable form of Reno's team showed up to advantage, and due credit should be given to team and trainer for the splendid manner in which they reeled of relays.
A special train brought down over two hundred visitors from Carson and vicinity. Purple and gold adorned not a few of the large crowd at the race track.
A gap was made in the very first relay by Benton Sparks; he spun ahead of his men in the fourth mile. After that the race was decidedly one sided and the distance lengthened to one mile and a half ere the fiftieth mile was ridden.
If Reno's team keeps up her clip, we prophesy a victory over Sacramento on the Fourth of July.
Keddie made the fastest mile Sunday—time, 2:13.
Total time for Reno's fifty-miles—two hours, fifteen minutes and fifty-five seconds.

A New Departure for Reno.

F. C. Savage's new Plumbing & Heating Display store and office at 318 Virginia street will be opened about July 1st.
Mr. Savage intends to devote his time exclusively to the business. All work will have his personal supervision.
He has employed Mr. Davis of San Francisco who comes highly recommended to the people of Reno.
With Mr. Savage's experience and the assistance that a first-class up-to-date workman from the city affords, they should, and will, undoubtedly, command a good share of the public patronage in the plumbing and heating line.

COPPER TOE NOW EXTINGUISHED

How the Boot Protector Was Invented by a Maine Farmer.

Children kick out the toes of their boots now just as much as they ever did, but the copper toe has gone out of date too long ago to talk about. It was fine, though, in its day. How the copper did wink and glitter in the fire-light! Away up in the Maine woods a farmer who could not bear the thought of giving the shoemaker all he earned took an old copper wash-bow and cut it into strips, which he fastened on the toes of the boots of Elbridge and Elmer, Ellsworth and Eddie.

"There now!" said he. "Less see you git through them in a hurry. Laws! I never see boys so hard on shoe leather!" It was a bright idea, and the more he thought about it the more it was borne in on him that it was a bright idea. He got a patent on it. Elbridge and Elmer, Ellsworth and Eddie were kind of ashamed to be seen in their copper toes at first, but when the other boys all crowded around them at the district school and said: "Gosh! Woodst my pa would fix my boots that way!" they felt more comfortable and rather happy. From that it went on till, for the sake of peace and quietness in the house, if for no other reason, fathers had to buy copper-toed boots for their boys. The Maine farmer got rich and had five three times a day and moved to town and had a haircloth sofa in the front room and a marble topped center table with wax flowers in a glass case on it and everything that heart could wish.

But foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, and it is part of his nature to be hard on shoes. You may beat the laws of the universe for a little while when they are not looking, but not for long. The day came when the child woke up and realized that it was being robbed of its rights guaranteed under the constitution. Something like this, eh, "We, the children of the United States, in convention assembled, do hold these truths to be self-evident?" Not at all, not at all. They said: "Heel! Copper-toes! Copper-toes!" And the coon came down—Harvey Sutherland in Ainslee's.

Brief and Pithy.

An American law journal has quoted the charge to a jury delivered by a certain Judge Donovan as the shortest on record. The Judge said:

"Gentlemen of the jury, if you believe the plaintiff, find a verdict for plaintiff and fix the amount. If you believe the defendant, find a verdict for defendant. Follow the officer."

But an English periodical caps this brief charge by quoting a shorter one delivered by Commissioner Kern. He said to a jury:

"That man says prisoner robbed him. The prisoner says he didn't. You settle it."

Appropriate.

"I've bought a bulldog," said Parsniff to his friend Lessup, "and I want a motto to put over his kennel. Can you think of something?"

"Why not use a dentist's notice—'Teeth inserted here?'" suggested Lessup.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Wm. Finnerger.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be means of saving other lives. For sale by Wm. Finnerger.

The Russian Peasant.

It is asserted by those who have lived among them that the lowest types of modern European civilization are probably the Russians. While writers and travelers vary as to the future of Russia nearly all are agreed as to the utter degradation at present of the Russian peasant. He is always on the verge of starvation and is absolutely improvident, while his gross and complete ignorance is combined with the most extravagant superstition. Like all low natures, he is thoroughly distrustful of reform, and as a climax to his infirmities he is a confirmed drinker.

Middle class in Russia there is practically none. The small shopkeepers combine exorbitant charges with shameful usury. Manufacturers and producers are nearly all foreigners, and the larger trade of the country is chiefly in German hands. Education may after the lapse of several generations remove the inherent dullness of this people, but it will be no easy matter to root out evils which are the growth of centuries of serfdom and distress.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Same Effect.

"It is very odd," remarked Mr. Hubbub, "that in Africa there is a tribe which cannot wear clothes at all. Clothes make them sick. Isn't it strange, dear?"

"Not at all," replied Mrs. Hubbub. "The same thing happens in this country also."

"Oh, surely not! I never heard of such a thing in civilized countries."

"Well, Mr. Hubbub, I can tell you that even in this great and glorious land the same phenomenon is by no means unknown. When I see Mrs. Polndexter coming out every month or so with a fine new outfit from head to foot, her clothes make me sick—make me sick, I say. Mr. Hubbub—when I reflect that you are just as able to buy me new clothes as Mr. Polndexter is to buy them for his wife and don't."

And Mrs. Hubbub dissolved in tears. —Smart Set.

Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough. Having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Wm. Finnerger.
